The Commission expressed its condolences to Milton Liese in the passing of his brother, Clarence.

Mervin Walker invited all to the 100th birthday party of Thomas Bohanan in Weir on May 15, 2:00.

The first Sunday in June, Liberty Hill Cemetery Association will hold its annual celebration. All are invited.

Special Guest, JC Johnson, spoke to the commissioners to give a history of the “Old Georgetown Cemetery” which has also been referred to as the “Black Cemetery”. The state historical survey of 1862 marked the cemetery. A road was put through in 1953. The whites were buried on the east side and the blacks were buried on the west side. Families such as the Milams and Wallbargers are buried there. Two plots are cemented over. There are 85 discernible graves, 63 with stones. Many tombstones were wooden and have disintegrated. In 2000, the city hired a firm to restore the cemetery for $14,000. It was poorly done. The cemetery was in use from 1840 to 1902.

Mr. Johnson’s history account was captured on recorder by Wayne Ware for use in the Oral History records.

Meeting Adjourned – 5:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Clare Easley, Secretary
